RE: Patent Application Service Number 09/534,233 ✓

Dear Sirs,

I hereby declared that I have moved from Malaysia to Australia from the 5th Feb 2004 and as such action letter for the above application mailed 30 Jan 2004 to my previous address in Malaysia would not be reachable to myself or in alternative, I would not be able to receive it. As at today, I have not been able to receive the first mentioned action letter. A copy of the declaration is attached here.

I have duly informed USPTO of my change in address and this has been acknowledged by said on the 18 Feb 2004.

I hereby request in good faith that a second action letter be mailed to me as soon as possible to the above address and to have time period restarted if possible. My past records have shown that I have consistently responded in good time and I have every intention to respond to this action letter to avoid abandonment.

Accordingly, MPEP 711.03(c) Part II may not be applicable as in this instance case where a change of address from one country to another has resulted in the failure for the applicant to receive the said action letter.

Thanking you in advance.

Yours truly,
